Feast of St. Brigid.

St. Brigid is renowned for her hospitality, almsgiving and care of the sick. She was born c.454. When she was young her father wished to make a very suitable marriage for her but she insisted in consecrating her virginity to God. She received the veil and spiritual formation probably from St. Mel and stayed for a period under his direction in Ardagh.

Others followed her example and this led her to found a double monastery in Kildare with the assistance of Bishop Conleth. She died in 524 and her cult is widespread not only throughout Ireland but in several European lands.

for the victorious under 14 boys and under 16 girls who both won their county football championships in 2011.

Victory Social

With eight cups on display in The Clare Inn Hotel last Saturday evening one knew that this was going to be a great night. Our Ladies taking ownership of half of these cups collected their camogie medals from the long serving club and Munster officer Bridie O' Looney. Bridie presented medals to the ladies who won the "A" minor and senior camogie championships. Clare Camogie was also well represented by Camogie Chairperson Orla Considine. Clare Ladies Football Chairman Johnny Hayes was on hand with Marie Louise Kaiser to present the Newmarket Ladies with their Intermediate Football medals. The Newmarket men took ownership for the remaining four pieces of silverware for The Clare Champion Cup, The Senior B, Junior A and Junior C championships. County Board Chairman Michael O'Neill presented the Senior hurlers with their Clare Cup and Senior B medals and the legendary clubmen Paddy McNamara and Mike O'Leary presented the Junior A and C medals. Enda Barrett presented plaques on behalf of the club to the Clare minor representatives in both hurling and camogie on winning the
